

HOMŒOPATHIC DIAGNOSIS

Hahnemann through Bönninghausen

CONTENTS

Prologue	5
----------------	---

Part One

Homœopathic Diagnosis	11
1. The Object of the Homœopath	11
2. The Homœopathic Diagnosis	11
3. The Sufficiently Defined Symptom	11
Remittent cough case example	12
4. The Sufficiently Defined Case	12
Infertility case example	13
Recurrent bronchitis case example	13
5. Symptomarchy	15
6. The Abstraction of Characteristics	16
7. The Completion of Symptoms by Analogy	17
Sub-acute eczema case example	19
Hæmorrhoids case example	20
Repertory Lineage	39
1. From the Beginning	39
2. Bönninghausen's First Repertory	39
3. TFR Successors	39
4. Bönninghausen's Final Repertory – Therapeutisches Taschenbuch (TT)	40
Therapeutisches Taschenbuch	51
1. Abstraction & Recombination - the basis of TT	51
2. Remedy Grading	54
3. Characteristics Mapping	55
4. Remedy Concordances	57
5. 125 Remedies – limitation?	59
The Bönninghausen Repertory	67
1. Rubric Exegesis	67
2. Extension of Provings by Deduction	70

Part Two

TBR Case Exercises	76
1. Prefatory Remarks	76
2. Early Cases using TBR	78
3. Cases using a single TBR Rubric	81
4. Cases with a single Complaint (no concomitants)	84
5. Cases with Multiple Complaints (presenting + concomitants)	92
6. Cases using Remedy Concordances	118
7. Examples of Cases not requiring Repertory	123
Bibliography	127

Appendices

1. The Sources of our Materia Medica	132
2. Primary & Secondary Reactions	143
3. Facsimiles: The Repertorial Lineage of TBR	155